Empowering Leaders, Strengthening Communities

June 16, 2017

MALCOLM S. GARMIA, CESO V
OIC-Regional Director
DepEd Region III-Central Luzon

Dear Dr. Garmia:

Saceda Youth Lead, a Youth Serving Institution under the auspices of the National Youth Commission, would like to propose a 3-day Region Wide Leadership Development Training with the Emphasis on Public Speaking for SPG and SSG Leaders and Teacher Advisers.

SYL, with its 19 year track record in leadership training development in the ASEAN and West African regions, continues empowering elementary, high school and college students and even professionals to become most effective citizens by providing them opportunities in leadership, community service and exchange.

Our proposed dates will be on August 11-13, 2017. And our proposed venue for the training will be in DepEd Division of Bulacan Province.

The Registration Fee is P600 per student leader/ teacher adviser to cover the, kits, ID's certificates etc.. P400 will go to SYL Team and P200 will go to the host team for the provision snacks for all participants and other logistical support such as PA system, LCD projectors and rental of venue.

We employ an experiential learning with strong emphasis on skills and values formation; teamwork and leadership development. We hope you can support this cause and we will be glad to come to conduct this training.

Attached is our program proposal. Thank you very much!

Sincerely,

Dr. Dave G. Saceda
Chair and Founder

ABOUT SACEDA YOUTH LEAD

Sacoda Youth Lead is a Youth Serving Institution of the Philippines under the auspices of the National Youth Commission of the Philippines. For 19 years now, it continues empowering elementary, high school and college students and even professionals to become most effective citizens of our country by providing them opportunities in leadership, community service and exchange and builds leadership through education and action.

SYL believes that through our youth and our teachers we will see the future of our country and through their good deeds we will prosper as one nation. It believes that education is the backbone of our economy and it needs greater partnership and collaboration with other institutions to empower the Filipino Youth to become better citizens of our country by providing them opportunities in leadership, community service and social action. It believes in the ripples of modest beginnings that societal transformation must start from within and that involves training and awakening of the self; given the chance and guidance, one can become an agent-of-change for God and country.

Sacoda Youth Lead will be an Affiliate Member of the United Nations World Tourism Organizations in 2017 (affiliation is in progress), a Registered Member of the Philippine National Volunteer Service Coordinating Agency of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), registered as a Youth Serving Institution under the auspices of the National Youth Commission. It is a recognized NGO on youth empowerment and development by the Charter for Compassion, Harvard University Alumni Association of the Philippines, Ngee Ann Polytechnic of Singapore, Department of Youth and Sports, Brunei Darussalam and the Berg Institute, along with the recognition from the Department of Education, and Commission on Higher Education. It has empowered more than 200,000 youths and teachers in all its programs and activities in the Philippines, the ASEAN and the West African regions.
