Dr. Malcolm S. Garma, OIC
Regional Director Region III
Maimpis, City of San Fernando, Pampanga

Dear Dr. Garma:

Greetings from the Philippine High School for the Arts (PHSA).

We are very pleased to announce that the PHSA search for young art scholars for School Year 2018-2019 is now open. The PHSA conducts screening of applicants annually to continuously look for artistically talented children who will be given special training in the field of ballet, folk dance, creative writing, music, theater, and visual arts.

The scholars are awarded free tuition, free board and lodging, monthly stipend, a chance to be mentored by master teachers in the arts and opportunity to represent the country and the school in local and international festivals, competitions, and exchange programs with partner institutions and countries.

The scholarship is open to all currently enrolled Grade 6 students from both public and private schools.

In this connection, we would like to request for your support in the dissemination of the information to parent, students, and schools in your community.

The program is endorsed by Department of Education (DepEd) through Memorandum s.103 dated June 5, 2017. An amendment to the said memorandum for the updated schedule of audition and testing will be released soon. Following is the updated schedule for your information and guidance.
