SHOWING OF THE FILM OLD SKOOL

The Till I'm 90 Film Productions announces the showing of the Film entitled Old Skool. This film is a heartwarming story about a Lola, played by Ms. Tessie Tomas, who goes back to school despite old age, and attempts to survive the ruthless and cutthroat world of pre-teen campus life. This inspiring story also showcases award-winning actors Buboy Villar and Angel Aquino.

The showing of the Film aims to:

1. show the importance of pursuing education and increase awareness among students on the relevant issues tackled in the film (i.e. finishing school and bullying);
2. deepen their appreciation of the independent films as a means to inspire and create a positive change in ones' mindset and a great tool for educational entertainment/enrichment; and
3. promote the Alternative Learning System of the Department of Education and to give it the respect and understanding it deserves.

The target viewers are learners from both public and private elementary and secondary schools.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith. This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546, An Act Prohibiting the Sale of Tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and Universities (Ganzon Law).

Synopsis

The quest for happiness is a universal journey and Old Skool is all set to present a road map to get there.

The debut feature film of director Cla Hermosa-Jorge and latest release from Till I'm 90 Films follows the story of 60-year old Lola Fely, played by Tessie Tomas, who finds herself lost following the death of her husband.

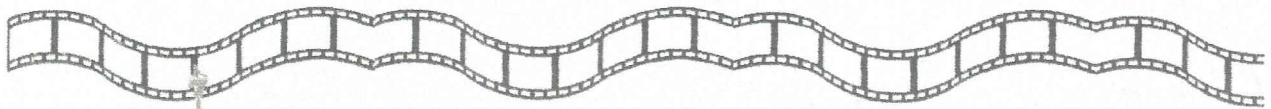

Having spent five decades playing a role to fulfill the happiness of others—as a wife and mother, she is now faced with the question of her own happiness. She seeks the answers in fulfilling a lifelong dream to receive her elementary diploma. With new-found determination, Lola Fely goes back to school to finish Grade 6, only to discover the ruthless world of pre-teen campus life. The movie sees the senior citizen navigating lunchroom politics, buying, making friends and dealing with the pressures of school.

Through graceful storytelling, Old Skool tugs at the heartstrings with great subtlety. Generous on the comedy and punctuated with genuine heartfelt moments, it is a movie with a bold message: In your journey to happiness, your dream is your north star.

This theme resonated strongly with Cla, who felt her own foray to filmmaking paralleled Lola Fely's journey. The mother of three first peered through the lens of a movie camera only in 2010, under the direction of the late veteran director Marlou Diaz-Abaya.

Old Skool, which also stars Angel Aquino and Buboy Villar (Kid Kurlaw), premieres on November 4 and will show exclusively in GM Cinema nationwide.

Dear Sir

Greetings!

Our film "OLD SKOOL" has recently been advisory by Department of Education (kindly see attached DepEd advisory No. 27, s.2017). We are planning to show in SM Cinemas Nationwide.

The film is a heartwarming story about a Lola (played by Ms. Tessie Tomas) who goes back to school despite old age, and attempts to survive the ruthless and cutthroat world of pre-teen campus life.

Based on the advisory, DepEd recognizes and support the film's advocacy to:

- Show the importance of pursuing education and increase awareness among students on the relevant issues tackles in the film (i.e. finishing school and bullying)
- Deepen their appreciation of the independent films as a means to inspire and create a positive change in ones' mindset and a great tool for educational entertainment/enrichment
- Promote the Alternative Learning System of Department of Education and give it the respect and understanding it deserves

Produced in 2015 by Till I'm 90 Films in cooperation with Bonfire Productions, this inspiring story also showcases award-winning actors Buboy Villar and Angel Aquino. The film also won Best Actress for Tessie Tomas in the 2016 Gawad Tanglaw Awards and was nominated in nine categories including Best Indie Film of the Year, Best Director and Best Screenplay in 2016 Star Awards for Movies.

After theatrical showing in November 2016, "Old Skool" continues to get requests for screenings in various places through partnerships with groups, government offices & schools.

In this light, we would like to seek your participation in the spirit of art as a community endeavor, possible for the whole school, school organizations, private companies/private organizations, churches and the whole community.

For more information, details may be discussed with representatives our Advocacy Distribution Partners, Liberty Pascua (contact no. 0927 645 0316).

Thank you for your kind attention.

Sincerely,

CIA HERMOSA - JORGE
