Dear Madam,

A greeting from the Philippine Publishing House/Central Luzon Conference, a non-stock & non-profit organization is hereby pleased to present to you our award-winning magazine—the Health & Home.

Health & Home magazine which is popularly known as the “National Journal of Better Living”, is the most balanced health journal that is now enjoying a nation-wide circulation. It deals with the four aspects of life which are—physical, mental, spiritual and social. It also strongly advocates value formation and family enrichment. These are the reasons why many professionals, particularly in the homes, offices, and schools are subscribers of this magazine. They love reading Health & Home because of its quality articles which are clean and wholesome.

We recognize the fact that a great number of our subscribers from all over the country who have found the articles in our magazine not only as useful aids in their professions but as a boost to their efforts to attain good health and better homes.

We express our gratitude to the many thousands who have subscribed to our magazine—the Health & Home magazine in its 58th year of circulation in the country in the year 2017. They already made Health & Home a part of their reading habit.

It will be a great honor for us if you will be one of our valued subscribers to this magazine.

It will also be a great support for our advocacy if you can recommend this magazine to your friends, colleagues, staff, and employees.

Mr. Noli Y. Torremoro, who is one of our field representatives assigned in your area, with her contact numbers—0932-364-4376, will be very glad to take your subscription for Health & Home, and also your most valued recommendation.

Thank you very much and God bless.

Sincerely yours,

CONSORCIO G. BAUTISTA
