Madam:

The Children's Literature Association of the Philippines, Inc. (CLAPI) is a non-stock, non-profit organization dedicated to develop, enhance and promote reading habits, and provide training to teachers (English/Filipino), (school/hub librarians), reading enthusiasts and early childhood practitioners. Founded in 1965, its main goal is to make children's literature come alive through creative energy, enthusiasm and imagination – creating and bringing library works to children, youth and lovers of literature.

On April 30- May 2, 2018, the association will be holding its annual seminar – workshop in the Promotion of Reading with the theme "Reading is For All, Part II". This will be held at Teachers Camp, Baguio City in partnership with the Dep Ed Library Hub Project of Luzon.

At the end of the 3 day seminar – workshop, the participants are expected to : 1) develop the culture of reading with a firm foundation on the love for reading; 2) acquire the art of teaching reading using the student's individual styles; 3) appreciate the use of storytelling as a means of reading promotion in the classroom, school libraries and the division library hubs; 4) write stories for children using the local indigenous materials; 5) recognize the school administrators as the prime mover in the promotion of reading, and lastly; 6) know the important role of school libraries and division library hubs in the promotion of reading and in the implementation of the k-12 program.

In this regard, may we request for an issuance of a memo from your office for wider dissemination of the above mentioned activity.

Our target participants are public and private school administrators, ALS and reading supervisors, teachers / schools and hub librarians, reading teachers (English/Filipino) writers, reading enthusiasts and ALS implementers. Participants will be charged P5,500.00 (Live-In) and P5,000.00 (Live-Out) 3 nights' accommodation at the venue (for live-in only) 3 breakfast, 3 Lunch and 3 dinners, 6 snacks, bag, CD copy of the seminar papers presented and certificate of appearance / active participation.

Thank you very much Madam, for your whole hearted support to our association and we hope for your immediate and favorable action regarding the above request, God Bless and more power to you!

Very truly yours,

FE E. ABELARDO
President
