Angeles City

Dear Dr. Cunanan:

The Pampanga Research Educators Organization, Inc. (PREO) will be holding the 2018 Training on Scholarly Research Writing and Basic Data Analysis Using SPSS on August 25-27, 2018 at Ephatha Development Center, SACOP Grounds, City of San Fernando, Pampanga. This training program is part of the Organization's commitment in enriching the research culture among academic institutions in the Philippines.

OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING

The three-day academic undertaking is primarily intended to boost the participants' respective academic institutions in their research capability building efforts as mandated by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and the Department of Education (DEPED). Specifically, it aims to:

1. Enhance the participants' awareness on the rudiments of scholarly research writing following the IMRAD format.
2. Identify the right statistical treatment in doing a research.
3. Perform statistical tests using SPSS, a statistical software, and interpret results.
4. Summarize and present statistical tests results in scholarly manner.
5. Encourage participants to express realizations/insights derived from their respective hands-on experiences.

In line with this, as a means of further establishing the importance of the Training, the Organization would like to seek for your approval by allowing us to secure a DEPED endorsement that will be attached in the invitation letters to invited participants.

For your reference, attached in this letter a copy of the Training details that we intend to follow for the Training.

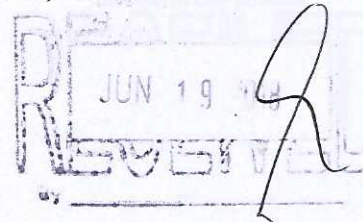

We are confident that your endorsement will significantly affect the overall success of this event. Should you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to get in touch with us.
