Dear Madam:

Greetings!

TAN-AW PRODUCTION, Inc., on its 10th year anniversary presentation will bring grandest historical-musical stage play production for the season 2018-2019. The play entitled GABRIELA SILANG highlights about the Filipino revolutionary leader best known as the first female leader of a Filipino movement for independence from Spain.

The play will be showcased at either nearest SM Theater Cinema or Theater Venues within your division on a specific date (Saturday or Sunday) requested by schools from month of October 2018 to March 2019.

In line with this, we would like to request your good office to kindly support us in the endorsement of this worthy endeavor by providing us a recommendation so that the student may be able to witness the above-mentioned play. We assured that the play are highly educational for the benefit of our beloved students and it comply with the principle of THEATER IN EDUCATION.

It is in the best interest of our students to know the life and heroism of Silang Couple especially Gabriela's determination to liberate her people.

Should you want to discuss further with us about this matter, we are pleased to come by at your office or you may contact us at this mobile number 0921-668-5524.

Hoping for your kind consideration about this matter. Let us built a healthy and progressive community with young talented people having harmonious art. Thank you and God bless.

"Buhayin natin ang Sining Pangtanghalan sa puso at isip ng kabataan..."

Respectfully yours,

ENGELBERT F. PACULANANG

Ipinakilala sa inyo ang unang babaeng bayani ng Pilipinas na si GABRIELA SILANG at ang kanyang talambuhay. Makikita sa dulang historical-musikal na ito ang kultura, pamumuhay gayundin ang mga sistema na pina-iiral sa lipunan ng mga Pilipino sa unang yugto ng panahon ng pananakop ng mga Kastila. Layunin nito ipukaw sa diwa ng manunuod ang kahalagahan ng kasaysayan at ang gampanin natin sa pag-unlad ng bayan. Nakakadagdag interes sa dula ay ang mga makukulay na kasuotan at disenyo ng ilaw, higit ang mga orihinal na komposisyon ng musika at choreo ng sayaw na isang medium na kinagigilawan ng mga kabataan ngayon. Ang istorya, konsepto at lenguahe ay angkop sa lahat ng antas ng manunuod (General Patronage) kung saan ang dula ay tumatakbo humigit kumulang dalawang oras (2 Hours).

THE STORY OF TAN-AW

"Love Art in Yourself, Not Yourself in Art..." - Konstantin Stanislavski

Tan-Aw Production Inc., founded by Mr. Engelbert F. Paculanang, is a non-profit theater art organization duly recognized by Security and Exchange Commission was established on November 08, 2008. The said group already engaged in community theater development program since 2003 under the name of Actor's Community Theater. A group of young generation committed to artistic excellence that aims to uplift moral and social transformation by means of theater as well as art appreciation. Tan-Aw has lived by this principle as it continues to serve people around them in the best way they can. It continues to highlight theater while never taking for granted that the art it produces and teaches always serves a greater purpose.

Most of the members at early times were alumni of different high schools here in Quezon City and it started by helping students and out-of-school youth to become stage play artist and facilitate community theater empowerment program by means of seminars and workshops. They conducted their activities in parks, houses of friends and school's function room since they do not own any formal venue. The group progresses through years until it was formalized and legalized as a theater company under new name, Tan-Aw Production Inc., with the aim to widen the scoop of our advocacy to rekindle theater for youth and to produce excellence in theater production.

Through the years, Tan-Aw continues to develop their members, associates and cultural leaders as it brings experimental and modernized way of showing beauty of Philippine culture and lifestyle. Tan-Aw has written, translated, adapted, and performed more than 100 plays and has facilitated hundreds of workshops that help shaping our Philippine theater together with other theater company with same advocacies as well.

Today, Tan-Aw, having a home-office here in Greater Lagro of Quezon City and with the help of Lagro Administration as well as Barangay Chairman Renato Galimba, continues their mission to serve best functional way especially in the field of theater and performing arts. They also offer mobile shows for schools and communities in Metro Manila and the provinces. These shows tackle youth and children development, education enrichment and high-end artistic presentation. With the support and funds they gathered, Tan-Aw provides free workshops and training to students and talented individuals, having outreach program for indigent people, making community one-act plays that promotes theater for everyone and organizing programs that promotes Philippine tourism, culture and arts.

Tan-Aw envisions that its dream for the people and society to value Theater as an instrument for greater good will be fulfilled someday. Tan-Aw Production Inc., a family which believed that life should be enjoyed living with all the artistic expression evolving around it and the world is a stage where creative learning are experienced. Tan-Aw is all about passion, art and sharing.
