MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the Moral Recovery Officers Foundation Incorporated as it conducts its 20th Moral Recovery Program National Convention-Workshop.

Our rapidly changing society has challenged, if not compromised, our moral standards. Reestablishing the values of honesty, integrity and transparency as pillars of our moral order is necessary to create better citizens and a better nation.

I am hopeful that this national convention and workshop will result in programs and strategies that will help revitalize the moral standards of our civil servants. I also commend the work you do in support of the government and in leading our society towards real and lasting transformation.

May you have a successful and fruitful event.
