Kudos from the Angeles City Fire Station and the Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP)

As we observe the BFP's Fire Safety Campaign for this year, a series of fire prevention activities and programs will be implemented to educate, inform, and equip the general populace in fire prevention and awareness.

As part of the Fire Prevention activities, BFP Nationwide will be conducting Fire Prevention Games and Contests in the unit level of every fire station.

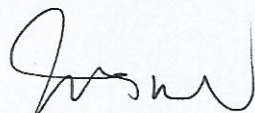

In this regard, the Angeles City Fire Station will be conducting Art Contests which is considered as one of the highlight activities during the celebration of Fire Prevention Month. There will be drawing contest for primary students and poster making contest for secondary students and is scheduled this coming 28 1000H February 2018 (Wednesday), to be held at the Event Center of Marquee Mall, Pulung Maragul, Angeles City.

In connection, the undersigned respectfully request your presence to grace the said activity and serve as our guest of honor. Furthermore, we are seeking your assistance in providing us two personnel from your department/ division to serve as judges for the essay writing contest. We strongly believe that this activity will showcase our enthusiasm and that of the participants in promoting awareness with regard to fire prevention and safety.

For any concerns and inquiries, please contact us through FO1 Rushmae V Canque with mobile number 0998-245-2385.

Requesting your earnest support.

Respectfully yours,

FCINSP JOSE RAYMUND B MANIMBO
City Fire Marshal
