Greetings of peace from Indochine Media Philippines!

Indochine Media Philippines, Inc. (IMP) is a multi-media company and an advanced publisher that leverages on print and online publications through editorials, advertorials, creative buys, digital executions, and co-branded events. It is a branch of Indochine Media Ventures (IMV), a Singapore-based media holding firm with regional offices in Vietnam, Malaysia, Thailand and recently, in the Philippines.

In October 2017, we launched a new fanzine called MY POPE. It's based on number one Italian weekly called IL MIO PAPA, and it's basically a fun and inspiring read on Pope Francis, his values, and the encouraging developments in the lives of likeminded individuals. As Pope Francis and his brand of love, openness, and compassion have such universal appeal, we thought it was about time we brought this title to the Philippines! As a 'feel-good lifestyle magazine', MY POPE hopes to inspire readers with a roster of fun and positive features in every issue. Sections will feature good news, inspiring stories, traditions, arts & crafts, everyday heroes and much more.

Reviewed by the Department of Education-Bureau of Curriculum Development, MY POPE is found "suited for Grades 7-10 learners and aligned to the K to 12 curriculum. As a matter of fact, the contents of MY POPE clearly address the Grade 7-10 learning competencies and content standards as stated in the Curriculum Guide." Attached please find a copy of DepEd-BCD review for your reference and MY POPE magazines for your evaluation.

Besides being an effective tool for teaching and developing values of learners, we also hope to develop among students the love for reading by providing them a good read that will inspire them and enable them to do good to others and for our country.

Understanding the role of MY POPE as support in values formation, we are pleased to offer My Pope magazine as supplementary reading material for Grades 7-10 learners under your division. We are pleased to provide you special rates on subscription as follows:
