The Philippine Pediatric Society Inc.,- Central Luzon Chapter has various programs and child wellness advocacies dubbed "All for the Filipino Child" which they intend to download to different schools through lectures and activities related to the programs.

Relative to this, school heads are reminded to adhere to the "No disruption of classes" policy of the Department. Lectures and other activities can be held during vacant periods.

Attached is the letter of Salome F. Arinduque, MD, FPPS, President, Philippine Pediatric Society-Central Luzon Chapter, for reference.

Dear Dr. Capulong,

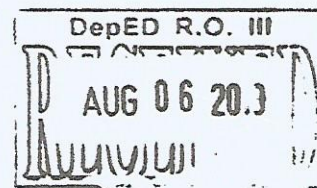

Greetings!

Every physician has his calling and that calling holds "service". The Philippine Pediatric Society, Inc. is vent to play a role "All for the Filipino Child". Our programs are:

1. First 1000 Days
2. Breastfeeding
3. Social Media
4. Play
5. Mental Health
6. Teenage Pregnancy
7. Parenting

and other child wellness advocacies which are all the Philippine Pediatric Society and the Pediatricians' concern. We might be handling our private patients well with this and all other issues, but what about the other children who unfortunately for one reason or another may not be privileged to see a private practitioner?

With these, the Philippine Pediatric Society – Central Luzon Chapter would like to ask a collaborative partnership with the Department of Education. The members of the society, with your kind permission will be visiting schools in Central Luzon to download this program, by way of lectures, program or any activity related to the program scheduled in a monthly basis. I'm just afraid of the interruption of classes but I hope we will be allowed to, in proper coordination with our school heads. The lecture materials will be
