Educational Trip Summary

Field trips can be a memorable and a positive experience for school children. There are many meaningful benefits for providing an excursion for kids and a chance to see and try new things.

Educational tours for students provide them with an opportunity to collaborate with teachers, and integrate new perspectives with informal environments to enhance learning initiatives. Among the many educational tour benefits, skill development is the most important. In order to meet several educational tour objectives, students need to apply skills, values and general knowledge in new settings.

Our Objectives:

1. Provide valuable qualitative and affective learning experience which will encourage about the interaction between man and his environment.
2. Let them be exposed to the cultures and way of life of different groups of people and to be humble and respectful in their interactions.
3. Foster strong bonds of friendship and camaraderie among students and teachers.

TARGET DESTINATION

THE DESSERT MUSEUM

The Dessert Museum is 8 mouthwatering rooms of sugar-filled happiness. This is the only museum you'll ever slide into! Follow the Candy Rabbits through the Donut Hole and slip down the sprinkle slide. Choose your path in Candy Cane Groves or go Cotton Candy Picking in the sweetened forest.

As you slide, jump, play, and swing through The Dessert Museum, you will also be treated to samples of desserts especially curated to fit the themed room. Amazing fun facts about each dessert will make this not only a sweet experience, but also brimming with interesting information to complete your tour!

The Dessert Museum is an interactive eat-as-you-play-and-learn experience where the sights are just as delicious as the sweets. There are only two things on the menu - sugar and selfies.

TARGET DESTINATION

THE GARDEN

The Garden is located beside Philippine Arena and Philippine Sports Stadium.

Ciudad de Victoria-The Garden has attractions such as Animal World and Planetarium. It has a beautiful play area and an inflatable playground for children to play. Swings, slides, play horses, etc. are seen there as well.

The Garden has so many various kinds of plants and flowers. Inside it has "Cactus Land", "Orchidarium", "Bonzai" to name a few.

Ciudad de Victoria is a perfect place for relaxation. The garden is breathtaking in size and in beauty. People of all age come here to enjoy. It's not just a religious place, but also a place wherein you can enjoy, learn and have fun at the same time!
