Greetings!

"Hanggang sa Dulo ng Forever" is an Aliw Award Winning and Nominated theater play performed through spoken poetry by Jocson College's Center for Learning and Development in Culture, Arts and Sports (CLDCAS). It's one of a kind concept led to the play winning two awards: Best New Concept and Jayson Gantan Pabalan for Best Director, and three nominations: Best Ensemble, Joshua "Bits" Cruz and Joyce Gabriel for Best Performance in a Role.

It tells the story of Miguel, a young boy who had kept his hobby of writing poems a secret and of Felisa, who struggles to hear her mother's approval or pursuing a career in the field of writing. Fate has planned for these two star-crossed lovers to meet and create a touching story of their own. However, as many dreamers experienced, they had to face obstacles such as doubt and conflict, not only in achieving their dreams but their relationship as well.

The tickets will be on sale any time for only Php 350.00

The performances will be on the 2nd and 9th of March, 2019 at the Holy Angel University Theater with three shows per day.

We encourage you and your students to witness the show that has captivated the hearts of many through a story of growth and love. Where one can learn that no matter how small a voice could be, the heart will not be lost, it hears and holds the key.

We hope that you will be one with us in this endeavor. Thank you for your time and all the best wishes!

Best regards,

Kenneth Bautista
