Dear Madame,

Greetings from Central Luzon State University!

We are pleased to inform you that the Philippine Guidance and Counseling Association-Nueva Ecija (PGCA-NE) chapter, in its desire to help Counselors and Guidance Practitioners to develop, implement and support effective counseling programs, will hold its First Convention and Seminar-Workshop on March 18-20, 2019 at the CLSU FPJ DevCom Hall. ✓

With the theme, "Promoting Mental Health Responsive Counseling Programs and Services", the convention-workshop is envisioned to equip the participants with the necessary skills and knowledge to address different mental health issues of their clientele. Our resource speakers include the current and the past Presidents of the Philippine Guidance and Counseling Association National.

In connection to this, we would like to request your good office to endorse this activity through a memorandum for the active participation of Guidance Counselors, Psychometricians as well as Teachers assigned as Counselors and other Guidance Practitioners in the region, particularly in Nueva Ecija. Attached is our program for your perusal. ✓

We ardently pray for your favorable response as this will go a long way in the pursuit of our endeavor for the benefit of our clientele, particularly the students we serve.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

ELIZABETH S. SUBA, PhD, RGC, RPsy, RPm
President, PGCA-NE

1st PGCA-NE Convention and Seminar-Workshop
March 18-20, 2019

FPJ Dev-Com Hall, Central Luzon State University
Science City of Munoz, Nueva Ecija

Course Description:

This convention and seminar-workshop aims to hone participants' counseling skills and competencies and assist them in developing mental health-responsive counseling programs and services. Participants will be oriented on the relevance of promoting mental health, assessment procedures, and trends and techniques in the management of mental health cases in the school and corporate settings. Target participants are Counselors, Psychometricians and other Guidance Practitioners in the elementary, high school and college levels both in the public and private sectors in Nueva Ecija and nearby provinces.

Seminar Objectives

At the end of the 2 and a half-day seminar-workshop participants will be able to:

1. Explain the importance of promoting mental health among their clients and constituents.
2. Explain, apply and share their knowledge on the new trends/techniques in management of mental health cases.
3. Demonstrate basic counseling skills in the practice of their profession.
4. Understand/demonstrate how to do the counseling interview and utilize simple assessment tools used in counseling
5. Apply the ethical considerations in the practice of counseling and assessment.
6. Collaborate with other helping professionals in developing mental health-responsive counseling programs and services.
