SUBJECT: Essay writing competition for the celebration of the Angeles City Hall of Justice Inaugural Anniversary

Dear Engr. Domingo:

The undersigned hopes that this letter finds you well.

I am writing to extend a formal invitation to the esteemed schools in Angeles City to participate in the upcoming Inter-School Essay Writing Competition organized by the Hall of Justice of Angeles City.

This competition is designed to inspire and empower young minds to express their thoughts, ideas, and aspirations through the art of writing. Beyond fostering creativity, this initiative aims to provide valuable insight into how the judiciary is perceived through the lens of Generation Z and Generation Alpha, encouraging fresh and thoughtful perspectives on justice, fairness, and the role of the courts in society.

Subject: Essay Entry/Entries - [Name of School]

We believe that this competition will provide an opportunity for the students to nurture their creativity, develop their writing skills, and engage with important social issues. It is also a chance for them to showcase their talents on a larger platform and potentially win recognition and prizes.

Winners in each category will receive a special gift, a recognition award, and the unique opportunity to visit various courts and offices within the Angeles City Hall of Justice.

We look forward to your positive response and to welcoming the students into our competition. Together, let's empower the next generation of writers and thinkers. Thank you for your attention and consideration.

Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to email us on the aforementioned email address or contact us through our mobile number 09319382192 and look for Ms. Gilliane Generoso.

Thank you and stay safe.

Very truly yours,

EDA P. DIZON
