MEMORANDUM

To: All Schools Division Superintendents
School Heads of Public and Private Elementary and Secondary Schools

From: The Office of the Regional Director

Subject: 21st National Crime Prevention Week (NCPW) Celebration

Date: August 19, 2015

Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 461, dated August 31, 1994, declaring the first week of September of every year as National Crime Prevention Week (NCPW), the 21st annual observance of the National Crime Prevention Week will be held on September 1-7, 2015 with the theme, Krimen ay Tuldukan, Karapatan ay Igalang!

The NCPW observance this year is geared towards adopting the Community and Service-Oriented Policing (CSOP) System, aimed at building collaborative partnership between the law enforcement agencies, local executives and community, promoting peace and order, ensuring public safety as well as strengthening the local government capability for the effective delivery of basic services to citizenry.

Schools Division Offices (SDOs) and schools are therefore encouraged to undertake activities in creating awareness, promoting peace and order and ensuring safety in our schools and offices through posting of tarpaulins, integrating topics on lessons, conducting forum and symposium.

Attached are the NCPW calendar of activities, Memorandum from the National Police Commission and sample format for the tarpaulin for your reference.

For your information and guidance.

MEMORANDUM

TO : CHIEF, PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE
FROM : VICE CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE OFFICER, NAPOLCOM
SUBJECT : 21st National Crime Prevention Week (NCPW) Celebration
on September 1-7, 2015

Reference : Presidential Proclamation No. 491, dated August 31, 1994, declaring the first week of September of every year as National Crime Prevention Week

NAPOLCOM Resolution No. 2015-342, empowering the Philippine National Police (PNP) to perform its role as a community and service-oriented agency through the adoption of the Community and Service-Oriented Policing (CSOP) System involving the Local Executives, PNP and community as mandated by Republic Act Nos. 6975 and 8551

1. Pursuant to the aforementioned Proclamation, the 21st annual observance of the National Crime Prevention Week (NCPW) will be held on September 1-7, 2015 with the theme Krimen ay Tuldukan, Karapatan ay Igalang!
2. The NCPW observance this year is geared towards adopting the Community and Service-Oriented Policing (CSOP) System, aimed at building collaborative partnership between the law enforcement agencies, local executives and community, promoting peace and order, ensuring public safety as well as strengthening the local government capability for the effective delivery of basic services to the citizenry.
3. In order to bolster a system of coordination and cooperation, the units in the Philippine National Police (PNP) are directed to coordinate with the local executives and the community to identify issues and concerns in the area on how basic services can be delivered more effectively through joint programs and projects, which should be implemented by means of collaboration and cooperation and complementation of funds, personnel and logistics.
4. Recognizing that keeping the communities safe is not just the responsibility of the police, the objectives of the coming celebration are as follows:
 - a. Strengthen the support of local chief executives in crime prevention and community policing;

"Ang bayang walang karamikan ay bayang walang kauntaran"

...for effective community policing, and

...communities and create secure and safe environment through implementation of CSOP System.

5. To ensure a successful celebration, you are hereby directed to issue a Memorandum to all PNP Regional, Provincial, City and Municipal Police Offices and stations/precincts to undertake crime prevention projects and activities in their respective areas of jurisdiction in coordination with NAPOLCOM Regional and Provincial Offices, to include the conduct of community dialogues to identify issues and concerns on peace and order, and public safety as well as effective delivery of basic services to the community
6. Likewise, you are directed to incorporate your program of action in your calendar of annual activities and allocate funds for the purpose to effectively implement various programs, projects and activities which were developed or formulated through the CSOP System.
7. Attached is the NCPW Calendar of Activities at the national level for your guidance and reference
