1. The Department of Education (DepEd) reiterates DepEd Memorandum No. 74, s. 2016 entitled Recognition of the Members of the National Anti-Poverty Commission-Children Sectoral Council (NAPC-CSC) and Provision of Special Academic Activities, to emphasize the role of NAPC-CSC members in pushing for national and local policies, programs and projects for the benefit of the children sector, especially in issues such as violence against children, child abuse, child labor and child participation.
2. The DepEd shall allow the attendance of the selected learners who are council members to the activities of the NAPC-CSC as part of their official function. The list APC-CSC members for 2015-2018 is enclosed.
3. The council members who will attend NAPC-CSC related activities shall be excused from their classes. Further, they should be provided with sufficient time to keep them abreast with class requirements, such as make-up or special quizzes, periodical examinations or long tests, among other school works, upon their return to school.
4. A certificate of attendance, duly signed by the organizing official, shall be presented by the council members to their school heads/principals after their attendance to every NAPC-CSC activity or function.
5. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is directed.
