1. The National Defense College of the Philippines (NDCP) is now accepting nominees for its Master in National Security Administration (MNSA) Regular Course No. 54 for Academic Year 2018-2019, which will convene on October 1, 2018 and end on September 30, 2019.
2. The course is a one-year full-time government-funded scholarship consisting of 39 units earned through various forms of lectures, thesis writing, as well as local and foreign field studies. The NDCP follows a curriculum that integrates the political, economic, socio-cultural, techno-scientific, environmental, and military dimensions of national security guided by a holistic approach to national security and development, with emphasis on resource management. It also includes modules on leadership, national security administration, and global security and cooperation.
3. The MNSA program aims to develop the competencies, values, and skills of key officials and national security leaders in the formulation and implementation of policies related to national security and development.
4. The nominees are selected in their capacities as national security leaders with Salary Grade 18 and above or its equivalent. The civilian graduates have preferential consideration for promotion or appointment to key positions in the government and the privilege of being commissioned as Lieutenant Colonels or Commanders in the Reserve Force, Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP). In addition, the Career Executive Service (CES) eligibility process required for the CES eligibility has been integrated within the MNSA program.
5. The deadline for submission of names of qualified candidates is on or before March 1, 2018. The MNSA Admission Tests will start on May 13, 2018. The forms, basic documents, and clearances may be downloaded from the NDCP website at www.ndcp.edu.ph.

MASTER IN NATIONAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (MNSA) PROGRAM

Regular Class 54

ESTIMATED EXPENSES OF LOCAL STUDENTS

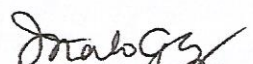

The one-year Master in National Security Administration (MNSA) program is a scholarship grant from the Government of the Republic of the Philippines. Tuition and payment of fees for site visits and the National Security and Development Studies (NSDS) are waived. The NSDS is a week-long visit to select areas in the Philippines.

Students are expected to shoulder the cost of local transportation, meals and personal necessities and accommodation at the NDCP Student Dormitory (recommended for those without residence in Metro Manila). It is also expected that the sending agencies/institutions/companies cover the full cost of the Global Security and Development Studies (GSDS), including the Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA), and the research/thesis writing expenses. The GSDS is a two-weeklong visit to select focus areas outside the Philippines

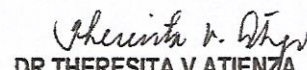

Below is a cost estimate:

Particular	Estimated Amount (1 USD= Php.55.00)
GSDS (Maximum estimate)	Php 250,000.00
Accommodation at the NDCP Student Dormitory (Twin sharing at P2,500.00 per student per month for 12 months)	Php 30,000.00
Research and Thesis writing (Minimum Estimate)	Php.60,000.00
Total	Php 340,000.00
