 SDO Angeles City
 Division of City Schools

Implementation of Project E-SIP MAPEH (Enrichment Activities for Special Instruction Program in MAPEH (for Junior High School in the Public Integrated Schools)

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
 Chief Education Supervisor - CID
 Chief Education Supervisor - SGOD
 Education Program Supervisors
 Public Scholl District Supervisors
 All School Heads of Integrated Schools
 All Others Concerned

1. The Curriculum Implementation Division (CID), takes a proactive role in responding to the challenge of making each learner meets the learning standards. The crafting of special instruction material in MAPEH is a response to make every learner meet the learning standards amidst class shifts brought about by classroom shortages, the on-going classroom construction in schools and suspension of classes.
2. The lessons and activities formulated in the special instruction for the MAPEH learning area may also be used for any instructional purposes with due consideration on the context and unique situation of the school.

The objectives of the Special Instruction are:

- a. to assist Junior High School teachers of integrated school in addressing issues on instructional time prescribed for MAPEH curriculum;
