SUBJECT : CALL FOR NOMINATIONS OF TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL REGULAR MEMBERS

DATE : May 3, 2023

One of the key features of Republic Act No. 11713 or the Excellence in Teacher Education Act of 2022 is the recomposition of the Teacher Education Council (TEC) members. Section 7 of the law states that the Council shall be composed of nine (9) members, wherein five (5) shall serve in an ex-officio capacity by virtue of their respective offices:

- 1) Secretary of the Department of Education as Chairperson;
- 2) Chairperson of the Commission on Higher Education as Vice-Chairperson;
- 3) Director General of the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority;
- 4) Executive Director of the National Commission of the Culture and the Arts;
- 5) Chairperson of the Professional Regulation Commission.

The remaining four (4) shall serve as regular members of the Council:

- 6) A teacher representative from a public basic education institution who is experienced and recognized as an expert nationally and internationally and whose personal and professional integrity as well as commitment to service are proven or well-accepted and endorsed by any public organization;
- 7) A representative from an organization of deans of colleges of education, professional teachers and educators;
- 8) A representative from a national organization of private basic education institutions; and
- 9) A representative from a national organization composed of school leaders from public or private basic education institutions.

Since March 16, 2023, the TEC Secretariat opened the call for nominations of the four regular members.

Relative to this and in accordance with Sec. 7(b) of RA No. 11713, we hereby request your good office to nominate

“a teacher representative from a public basic education institution who is experienced and recognized as an expert nationally and internationally and whose personal and professional integrity as well as commitment to service are proven or well-accepted”.

The Secretariat will be accepting nominations until May 12, 2023.

For any questions or clarifications, you may contact the TEC Secretariat at telephone number 8638-6172 or through e-mail addresses tec@deped.gov.ph.

For your immediate and appropriate action. Thank you.

Republic of the Philippines
Department of Education
TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL SECRETARIAT

Introduction

Under Republic Act No. 11713, the Teacher Education Council shall be composed of nine members that consist of five Ex-officio members and four TEC Regular Members. The law already identified that the Ex-officio members are the heads of the education agencies, particularly the Secretary of the Department of Education (DepEd) as the Chairperson of the Council, the Chairperson of the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) as the Vice-Chairperson of the Council, the Director-General of the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA), the Executive Director of the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), and the Chairperson of the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC).

The TEC Regular Members should consist of four representatives (Sec. 7). The law specifies that there shall be *a teacher representative from a public basic education institution who is experienced and recognized as an expert nationally and internationally and whose personal and professional integrity as well as commitment to service are proven or well-accepted; a representative from an organization of deans of colleges of education, professional teachers and educators; a representative from a national organization of private basic education institutions; and a representative from an organization composed of school leaders from public or private basic education institutions. The representatives shall be appointed by the President of the Republic of the Philippines based on the criteria given by the law (Sec. 7 b). The nominated representatives shall possess integrity, willingness to serve, and relevant expertise and experience in the education sector.

In the case of the TEC Regular Members, they shall undergo a selection process with three different phases. These are the Nomination phase, the Selection phase, and the Appointment phase. This selection process is the byproduct of the consolidated ideas from the three consultative meetings conducted on November 21-23, December 5-7, and December 12-14, 2022. This shall serve as the guidelines for forming the new Council under the new law.
